Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription,

Is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse because of the uncertainty as to their harmless character, but is a medicine OF KNOWN COMPOSITION, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol, in its make-up. The "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is in fact the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, sold through druggists, that does not contain alcohol and that too in large quantities. Furthermore, it is the only medicine for woman's special diseases, the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended.

A little book of some of these endorsements will be sent to any address, postpaid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Don't forget that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, for woman's weaknesses and delicate ailments, is not a patent or secret medicine, being the "Favorite Prescription" of a regularly educated and graduated physician, engaged in the practice of his chosen specialty—that of diseases of women—that its ingredients are printed in plain English on every bottle-wrapper; that it is the only medicine especially designed for the cure of woman's diseases that contains no alcohol, and the only one that has a professional endorsement worth more than all the so-called "testimonials" ever published for other medicines. Send for these endorsements as above. They are free for the asking.

If you suffer from periodical, headache, backache, dizziness, pain or dragging down sensation low down in the abdomen, weak back, have disagreeable and weakening, catarrhal, pelvic drain, or are in distress from being long on your feet, then you may be sure of benefit from taking Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best laxative and regulator of the bowels. They invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative; two or three a cathartic.

HEALTHY PLANTS

Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and dubbing in vaseline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Newbro's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Two sizes—50 cents and $1.00.

Constipation

Baked sweet apples, with some people, bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others, coarse all-wheat bread will have the same effect. Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man, if physicians can but find Nature's way to health. And this is strikingly true with regard to Constipation.

The bark of a certain tree in California—Cascara Sagrada—offers a most excellent aid to this end. But, combined with Egyptian Senna, Slippery Elm Bark, Solid Extract of Prunes, etc., this same Cascara bark is given its greatest possible power to correct constipation. A toothsome Candy Tablet, called Lax-ets, is now made at the Dr. Shoop Laboratories, from this ingenuous and most effective prescription. Its effect on Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath, Sallow Complexion, etc., is indeed prompt and satisfying.

No griping, no unpleasant after effects are experienced, and Lax-ets are put up in beautiful lithographed metal boxes at 5 cents and 25 cents per box.

THE BASSETT DIVORCE CASE.

In the Bassett divorce case in Omaha, Neb., yesterday, a letter, written by Rev. E. Lawrence Hunt to a friend, in which he spoke of his intention to ask Mrs. Bassett to marry him when she is free from her husband, was offered in evidence, but was withdrawn to be resubmitted at the proper time. In this letter Mr. Hunt says:

"At the very first I had no selfish motive in helping one of the very best of the flock God gave me to care for. I had no intention of asking her to be my wife when she is free, but I have been impressed with the marvelous character, the strength of womanliness, the brightness and cheerfulness, with which she has come up under the fierce trial of the past year. The fire has only purified this purest clearest gold of earth and heaven.

"I am so convinced that she will be such an exceptional power in the social and spiritual life of the congregation to which God will send me in his own best time that I am going to give love the right of way, and when she is free I am going to ask her to be my wife".

Half a dozen times Bassett's attorneys scored Mr. Hunt. They said that Mrs. Bassett was asking this divorce because Hunt wanted her to do so.

Mr. Bassett's attorneys showed by Mrs. Bassett in the cross-examination that much of the trouble was due to lack of money, and that her attempt at suicide was because of her remorse over her own extravagance.

"If you were here tonight I would kiss you, hug you, love you, dance for you and make you happy," wrote Mrs. Bassett to her husband, and then went on and ask him for more money.

The defense attempted to get before the court the length of time after Mrs. Bassett left her husband until the youngest child, Lawrence, named for the Rev. Mr. Hunt, was born. The court ruled out this testimony, but said it would be accepted later. Mrs. Bassett testified that she did not notify her husband that another child was expected, nor did she notify him when the child was born.

"It was none of his business," she said.

When Mr. Bassett was asked if the Rev. M. Hunt had not paid her expenses at the birth of little Lawrence, Mrs. Bassett's attorney made a strenuous fight, and staved off the answer for the present. The question will be answered later.

It was brought out that one of the whippings which Mrs. Bassett received from her husband was because she insisted on going to Rev. Mr. Hunt's church one night when he objected.

The Alaska Packers Association have taken the highest awards at every World's Fair where their goods were shown. At St. Louis World's Fair, the Red Salmon took the grand prize. The only grand prize ever given to Salmon at any World's Fair. The Argo Red Salmon is the best that is packed.

FRENCH MINISTRY SUSTAINED.

The French Ministry yesterday, President Fallieres in the chair, unanimously approved the agreement between Education Minister Briand and Premier Clemenceau relative to the form of the leases of the churches to the parish priests, and the Premier supported M. Briand's declaration before the Chamber of Deputies, which by a vote of 389 to 88 indorsed the government's policy.

M. Meunier, radical republican, at the opening of the debate said he was opposed to any recognition of the Catholic hierarchy.

The deputy concluded by saying: "Worship is free and the churches are open. That is sufficient. No conciliation between the republic and Rome is possible."

M. Meunier's statement was applauded by the members of the left party.

M. Guieysse, radical republican, followed on the same lines, expressing regret at the fact that the government had not recognized the cultural associations of the independent Catholics.

After a denunciation of the government's policy by M. Allard, socialist, M. Briand mounted the tribune and in an eloquent speech, which drew repeated rounds of applause from the center and even from the right, maintained that the government had not and would not abandon its conciliatory policy. The regime of the separation of church and state should not be made a cloak for religious prosecution. In spite of the intrigues of its enemies, the government proposes to fight out the issues on that line and to the end.

Then, turning to M. Allard and the members of the extreme left, he bitterly reproached them for "wanting to make war on millions of their fellow-countrymen." He said it was the duty of republicans and free thinkers, alike, to respect the consciences of the Catholics and to do nothing to invade their liberties.

He added, still addressing the members of the extreme left:

"Your conception of the separation of church and state is not ours. We stand for liberty for all."

Advice of the largest coffee dealers in the world is always to buy the old-fashioned Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee in the sealed packages. Don't ask for a pound of Mocha and Java, or buy by the price, for Coffee fluctuates and you cannot get the same coffee for the same price all the time unless you pay too much for it. Most of the so-called Mocha and Java Coffee is simply masquerading, and is not nearly as good coffee for you as Arbuckles' ARIOSA, the blend of the Brazilian Coffees most suitable to the taste and health of American people. By the looks there is no difference between roasted Java and Brazilian Coffees; many people drink Brazilian but pay for Java. The principal difference is that Arbuckles' costs you less. It is a mistake to believe that a high price guarantees quality. When you buy Arbuckles' ARIOSA Coffee, you get a full one pound package of the leading Coffee of the world. Its sales for 37 years are greater than the combined sales of all the other packaged coffees. By giving better Coffee for the money, we have built up a business exceeding the combined businesses of the four next largest coffee firms in the whole world. If your dealer will not supply the genuine, write to ARBUCKLE BROS., New York City.

The Pie Girl's Story.

Some interesting reminiscences are being brought out in the Thaw trial in New York. The recital of the story of the late Susie Johnson was listened to closely yesterday. The deceased shortly before her death had said:

"I was offered $50 to be the girl in the pie at the Breeze dinner. They placed me in an iron dish with 24 birds, which I held in a cage in my hand.

"A crust with air holes in it was over me and when the banjoists struck up the tune 'Four and Twenty Black Birds Baked in a Pie,' I burst through the crust, opened the cage and let the birds fly out and found myself stared at and cheered by 30 men and 2 women, who were models.

"I was lifted from the pie to a seat on the table, and found myself the queen of the revels.

"White handed me a glass of champagne and forced me to drink. Then another glass, and he seemed to take delight in my bewilderment.

"He told me what he could do for me. When he sent me to Europe two years later, I thought he was sincere in his statements that he would educate me for the stage. But in three months he stopped my allowance."

She was buried in Potter's Field.

Does Coffee disagree with you? Probably it does! Then try Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee. "Health Coffee" is a clever combination of parched cereals and nuts. Not a grain of real Coffee, remember, in Dr. Shoop's Health Coffee, yet its flavor and taste matches closely old Java and Mocha Coffee. If your stomach, heart, or kidneys can't stand Coffee drinking, try Health Coffee. It is wholesome, nourishing, and satisfying. If safe even for the youngest child. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Only a little cold in the head may be the beginning of an obstinate case of Nasal Catarrh. Drive out the invader with Ely's Cream Balm applied straight to the inflamed stuffed air-passage. Price 50c. SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

WEDNESDAY EVENING, FEB. 20, 1907.

"WHO SHALL say John D. Rockefeller's money is tainted?" asked President Jacob Schurman of Cornell University in an address at Cleveland, O., last night. "If the $32,000,000 he has just given to education goes for the civilization of the South it is far from tainted. I think it is destined for the South. The trustees will see that it is placed where it is most needed." President Schurman has evidently remained upon the earth too long, as he seems to be totally unfitted for present conditions when he wantonly libels a peaceful and intelligent section of the country from which most of the brightest luminaries in the nation's history have sprung. He was intended for the period beginning in 1860 and ending five years later. During that time northern cartoonists had crude ideas of southern people. They invariably illustrated a southerner as fierce guerrilla armed with a cutlass and a brace of antiquated pistols, after the order of imaginary pictures of Captain Kidd. Mr. Schurman, it appears, has retained such crude caricatures in his mind's eye long after the era of common sense has obliterated them from other people. While in no way regarding Mr. Rockefeller as a dispenser of tainted money, it may be said that the South has paid its way since the close of the civil war. The internal revenue receipts from Virginia alone have at times been greater than the amount collected from all the New England States. This section has erected public schools, paid teachers and met every other expense incident to general education. It is coveting no millionaire's money, and the suggestion made by the President of Cornell University deserves the contempt it should meet from every man south of Mason and Dixon's line from which section missionaries could be sent to civilize other portions of the country.

THE DUTCH have captured Holland, and Ephriam is joined to his idols. As anticipated, the municipal election in Philadelphia, yesterday, resulted in a sweeping victory for the republican machine. Congressman John E. Reyburn, of the Second district, was elected mayor by a majority ranging between 40,000 and 50,000, and Hugh Black, recently chairman of the republican city committee, was chosen as receiver of taxes, an office important for its large patronage. The city party, which led the independent fight, and which had less than half-hearted support from its ally, the democratic organization, carried not more than six of the forty-five wards, suffering heavy losses in districts where it was strongest in the fight of 1905, when it overthrew the republican organization. The Durham-McNichol organization calls the result a restoration of public confidence in the machine. The result means a disbanding of the city party. Philadelphia is a corrupt city and wants to remain such.

MR. REED SMOOT, the Mormon Apostle from Utah, retains his seat in the U. S. Senate. And there is no reason why he should not, as he was legally elected and there is a constitutional provision guaranteeing religious freedom in this country. But the question may be asked, Why was Representative Roberts, a Mormon, from the same State, turned out of his seat in the House? The answer is simple, Roberts is a democrat and Smoot is a republican, and the republicans are in control.

THE ownership by this country of the Philippine Islands has grown to be a joke. The Philadelphia North American says: "If it can be proved that a war with Japan will cost us the Philippines, let us have it without delay." A war with Japan would cost this country much less than it does to maintain control of the Philippines.

SOME of the Richmond newspapers want Mr. Thomas Dixon's play "The Clansman" suppressed on the ground that its production engenders bad feeling. These same papers as far as known make no protest against the rendition in Virginia of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

From Washington.

Washington, Feb. 20.

The Senate committee on foreign relations today agreed to report favorably the new treaty with Santo Domingo. The committee made one amendment to the treaty by striking out the provision requiring that the American officials who are to supervise the collection of the Santo Domingo revenues should be appointed "by and with the advice and consent of the Senate." It was held that these officials would not be officers of the United States Government and therefore did not come within the scope of the constitution and that the Senate had nothing to do with their appointment or confirmation. With this amendment agreed to Senator Morgan, by written note, voted with the republicans for the ratification of the treaty. Otherwise the favorable report was ordered by a strictly party vote. It is now believed that the treaty may be ratified before the end of the session, thus avoiding the necessity of a special session of the Senate after March fourth.

The President signed the immigration bill containing the coolie exclusion provision at noon today

Today's session of the Binger Hermann trial was occupied in reading to the jury letters written by the Congressman to certain correspondents in Oregon when he was commissioner of the land office. They where identified by his former private secretary, Harry S. Reger.

The bill applying the coal land laws of the United States to Alaska was today favorably reported from the Senate public lands committee.

The Senate will vote at 4 o'clock this evening on the question whether Mr. Smoot is entitled to retain his seat. It is conceded that Mr. Smoot's right to his seat will be upheld by a large majority.

Reed Smoot, republican, apostle of the Mormon Church, was elected United States Senator from Utah January 21, 1903 and took seat March 5, 1903 His term expires March 3, 1909. Protests were filed against him January 26, 1903 by citizens of Utah. Hearings by the Senate committee on privileges and elections began January 16, 1904. The following were the charges: That he represents an organization hostile to the government; that he has countenanced polygamy; that he took an oath in the "endowment ceremonies" incompatible with his oath as a Senator. Two thousand printed pages of testimony were taken by Senate committee. Senators Hopkins, Knox, Dillingham, Sutherland and Smoot have defended Smoot on the floor, and Messrs Burrows, Berry and Dubois have opposed him. This is the resolution reported by the committee on which the Senate will vote this afternoon: "Resolved, that Reed Smoot is not entitled to a seat as a Senator of the United States from the State of Utah."

Senator Thomas S. Martin, who is taking an extended trip to Egypt, England and the continent, in company with Mrs. Martin, in a letter to Colonel Joseph Button, of Richmond, says that Mrs. Martin is much improved in health and is standing the trip well. Senator Martin writes that he will return to his home in Albemarle some time in April.

Mr. R. Walton Moore, of Fairfax, was here yesterday in the Supreme Court library, engaged in preparing the defense of the Strother brothers, whose trial will begin at Culpeper on Thursday. Mr. Moore said he did not think more would be done this week than secure a jury, which would probably be obtained from another county.

Col. R. E. Lee, of Fairfax county, says he is not a candidate for Congress in the Eighth Virginia district and does not expect to become one. He says that all he knows about the report that the President was going to give him a federal appointment is what he reads in the newspapers.

It is reported here that Judge White, of Fauquier county, may drop out of the fight for Congress in the Eighth Virginia district.

It is more than probable that but few of the "notables" here who have been invited to make speeches in Alexandria on Washington's birthday will be able to do so as, they are all very busy now with their congressional duties and both houses are now holding day and night sessions.

JEROME'S BITTER ATTACK.

District Attorney Jerome made a bitter attack on Mrs. Evelyn Nesbit Thaw at the trial of the latter's husband in New York yesterday. He raked up her past in order to cast doubt on her story, and asked about her divorce suit. Jerome attempted to show that Evelyn wrote to White while engaged to wed Thaw. The district attorney also asked about an income of twenty-five dollars a week witness received while idle. He taunted the young wife with references to cat and chocolate eclairs of her childhood and also endeavored to ascertain who paid her board bills. He also intimated that the young woman 'phoned to other men while courted by Thaw.

Jerome asked questions about the Hotel Cumberland episode, when Thaw and Miss Nesbit were forced to leave because they would not register as Mr. and Mrs. Thaw.

Mrs. Thaw admitted she had an income of $25 a week while not on the stage.

Mrs. Thaw acknowledged she wrote to Stanford White after her engagement to Harry Thaw.

Validity of Marriage Questioned.

There was abundant proof in Pittsburg, Pa., yesterday that should Harry K. Thaw, now on trial at New York for the murder of Stanford White, be declared to have been insane when he made or remade the will which has been introduced as evidence in New York, there will be an effort to declare his marriage to Evelyn Nesbit, on the same day, null and void.

This will was practically arranged and completed on the day he married Miss Nesbit, and if the courts hold that Thaw was insane the day he married the artists' model, then the marriage will not hold. That there are those in Pittsburg who would like to see the marriage invalidated is certain. The concensus of legal opinion in Pittsburg yesterday was that if Thaw was insane at the time he made the will, he was also insane when he was married.

Attorney Herman L. Hegner, who at the time Thaw was married was marriage license clerk and attended to Thaw's case personally, yesterday gave it as his opinion that Thaw at the time he took out the license was crazy.

"Thaw acted most queerly that day, and though at the time attributed to nervousness, I am now inclined to think he was crazy, and that I should not have issued the license," said Hegner last night.

Chicago, Feb. 20.—Death has won in the divorce case of Mrs. Antonio Paredes, formerly Miss Florence C. Hutchinson, of Chicago, against her husband, Antonio M. Paredes, filed a week ago, when a firing squad from President Castro's army shot nineteen rebel prisoners at Caracas. Foremost among the slain revolutionists was the leader, Gen. Antonio M. Paredes.

Dr. C. N. Ellinwood has been deposed as President of Cooper Medical College and Lane Hospital, San Francisco the trustees charging that he has with held $400,000 to $500,000 left in his keeping for the institution's benefit by the widow of the late Dr. T. S. Lane, who died four years ago. Ellinwood says the money was a personal bequest.

News of the Day.

The Vice President has appointed Senator Gallinger, of New Hampshire, and Senator Martin, of Virginia, members of the board of visitors to the Annapolis Naval Academy.

Charles A. Newhall, millionaire clubman and sportsman, was shot yesterday at Ambler, Pa., near Philadelphia by Dawson Hoopes, also a rich man. Hoopes used a shotgun at thirty yards and fired both barrels at Mr. Newhall's head. The charges scattered, a number of shot piercing Mr. Newhall's scalp and side. He is severely, but not dangerously, injured. Hoopes, it is alleged, was drunk at the time of the shooting and charged Newhall with breaking up his family.

As a memorial to his daughter Charlotte, who was killed in an automobile accident in southern France last summer J. G. Schmidlapp, a widely-known Cincinnati baker and millionaire, yesterday announced the establishment of a trust of $250,000, the interest of which is to be devoted to the benefit of young women. Friends of Mr. Schmidlapp say that the trust was decided on by him after a recent visit to New York, and upon learning of the testimony in the Thaw trial. This makes a total of $500,000 given by Mr. Schmidlapp recently in memory of his wife and two daughters, all of whom met accidental deaths.

Representative John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, the minority leader in the House, yesterday addressed a letter to Gov. Curtis Guild, jr., of Massachusetts, acknowledging the receipt of a copy of a petition addressed to the President and Congress in regard to tariff revision, together with Gov. Guild's letter of transmittal. Representative Williams declares that the doctrine of a maximum and minimum tariff is not a new one to him, but declares that he does not favor the proposal of Senator Lodge, Speaker Cannon, and Representatives Dalzell and McCreary to make the present tariff the minimum schedules, with a maximum rate to serve the purpose of retaliation only. The minority leader suggests to Gov. Guild that the people "might as well look to a bald-headed barber for an effective hair restorer as to look to the republican party for a revision of the tariff."

CONGRESSIONAL.

The forestry bureau of the Agriculture Department was under fire again in the Senate yesterday and a number of restrictions were thrown around the collection, and disbursement of the funds of that bureau. Several minor bills were passed at a night session.

The House devoted practically the whole of its session to the postoffice appropriation bill. The provisions for reclassification of postal clerks and carriers, which would have had the effect of increasing salaries, went out on points of order made by Mr. Macon, of Arkansas. Mr. Murphy, of Missouri, delivered a speech in support of his anti-tipping bill. The sundry civil bill was adopted.

A heated controversy which at one time seemed to threaten a personal altercation between Mr. Macon, of Arkansas, and Mr. Fitzgerald, of New York, occurred while the House had under consideration the postoffice appropriation bill. General debate had terminated and the bill was being read for amendments under the five minute rule.

When the paragraph relating to the increase of pay for clerks in the first and second class postoffice was reached Mr. Macon made a point of order against the section. There were cries of "Don't do that!" "Let it go!" Mr. Macon, however, insisted upon a ruling on his point of order refused to reserve the point.

Mr. Fitzgerald vehemently exclaimed that if the gentleman from Arkansas believed in his mission to make a point of order against the increase of pay for clerks he would see to it that a point was made against the increase in the pay for the rural carriers for which the bill provides. He would have the country know that the failure to increase the pay of rural free-delivery carriers was traceable directly to the obstinacy of Mr. Macon.

Mr. Macon was on his feet in an instant. Shaking his finger at Mr. Fitzgerald, he said: "You cannot make any threats against me. You cannot use a whip that you will defeat the increase for rural carriers if I insist upon my point of order and strike out the increase for clerks in the big postoffices. I refuse to be castigated by the gentleman from New York."

Mr. Macon refused to withdraw his point of order and it was sustained by the chair.

SENATOR BAILEY'S DEFENSE.

Senator Bailey and Representative Cocke each had their turn with the investigating committees at Austin, yesterday.

Mr. Cocke filed a protest of 2,500 words against closing the investigation, and making what practically amounted to a series of supplemental charges against the Senator. He also desired to have the committee map out an extensive tour of the country to hear indefinite testimony from uncertain sources. What he asked, if granted, would keep the investigation on wheels for a long time. The committees turned down his request.

After Mr. Cocke's request had been negatively passed on Senator J. W. Bailey took the witness stand to his own defense. The committee room was crowded with spectators, and all the members of the two committees were present. There was no excitement, but the keenest of interest prevailed.

Just as Mr. Bailey had taken his seat a huge bouquet of roses, sent by some ladies of Austin, among them the wife of Hon. A. W. Terrell, once Minister to Turkey, was presented to Representative Cocke, who sat immediately opposite the Senator, but between whom no sign of recognation had taken place. The bouquet was placed on a table almost under Senator Bailey's nose. The incident caused a titter throughout the committee room. Bailey and Cocke both smiled.

Mr. Bailey was on the stand all day, and may continue as a witness in today's session.

The Thaw Trial.

New York, Feb. 20.—Interest in the trial of Harry Thaw for the murder of Standford White was as intense as ever this morning.

Court was convened at 10:32.

Thaw walked in briskly as usual. Attorney Gleason was absent from the Thaw counsel table again.

Evelyn Nesbit was the first witness called, and Jerome resumed the cross-examination. Evelyn's costume was the same as yesterday. She betrayed her agitation by evidences of nervousness, a drooping effect of the eye lids and a downward droop of the lips. It was seen she was prepared to use a woman's weapons, tears, against Jerome's attack, and appeal to the sympathy of the jury should she be subjected to the severe ordeal Jerome has clearly planned.

Her right glove was only partly on and she continually tugged at it. Her handkerchief was tucked in her breast pocket. She emphasized her replies by nodding or shaking her head, and spoke more slowly than yesterday.

Jerome produced several photographs of Evelyn when she was an artist's model, and questioned the witness as to when they were taken.

The first picture was termed a "butterfly picture," in which Evelyn is shown in a kimona, which she said Thaw had given her.

Jerome questioned her about posing for artists and photographers in Philadelphia before coming to New York. Evelyn said she had never posed there where more of her body was exposed than her arms and shoulders.

While this was going on one of Jerome's assistants entered the court room bearing an arm load of photographs of the former model which the prosecutor prepared to show to her.

Jerome questioned Evelyn as to her posing in New York, asking whether she had ever been photographed or painted with her breasts exposed. She answered positively that she had never posed in such a condition.

"You are certain you never posed for a painting or photograph with your breast exposed?" asked Jerome.

"I never did. I always posed with clothes on."

She moved her hands from her throat to her waist and said: "Do you mean without anything on here? I have posed in low neck, but never, never like that."

Jerome then asked her about where she and her mother lived after coming to New York.

"When was your picture first published?" asked the prosecutor.

"I think it was in a paper in June 1901, about the time I went on the stage."

"Wasn't it the Broadway Magazine?"

She mumbled that perhaps it might have been.

"Then reporters called and asked for your pictures?"

"Yes, sir."

"You gave them and they were published, explaining that you were on the stage and that you were an artists' model?"

"Yes, sir."

She said she first was in the Floradora company. In reply to the District Attorney that previous to coming to New York, when they were in Philadelphia she contributed practically all the support of the family, averaging about $18 per week.

Jerome began at 11:40 a. m. to cross-questioned Evelyn on the story of her ruin and tried to make her admit discrepancies as to the time of the night.

Jerome plunged into an examination regarding letters which Evelyn had received from Stanford White; bringing out the fact that fourteen letters written to Evelyn while she was abroad in 1903, are now in the hands of Thaw's lawyers, and hinting that others had been destroyed. He made a demand on Mr. Hartridge for the letters he has, but the latter declined to produce them.

Jerome questioned Evelyn regarding visits to a certain warehouse with attorneys to take away letters and papers written by White. She admitted having gone with Hartridge, but could not remember a trip with another attorney regarding which the prosecutor pressed her.

"Did not you have a large number of letters from Stanford White?"

"Yes, sir."

"In all these letters was there a single word of indecency or impropriety?"

"I don't remember much about them."

Pinned down to tell when she saw White's letters Evelyn said she had given them to Thaw, and he in turn gave them to Hartridge.

Jerome brought out that her goods and letters were placed in the store house by her mother and White in her mother's name.

"Was your husband constantly talking about these letters and asking for them?"

"Yes."

Jerome reverted for a moment to the night in White's studio in Twenty-fourth street, where Evelyn testified White had assaulted her.

"How long were you unconscious in the Twenty-fourth street studio the night you have described."

"I can't tell" answered Evelyn.

Jerome put a number of questions to the witness and endeavored to show that her answers were at variance with her direct testimony, but Evelyn managed to reconcile her second with her first statement.

The District Attorney also propounded other queries to which objection was taken and they were ruled out.

A recess was taken in the Thaw case for lunch at 12:30 p. m. until 2 o'clock.

Previous to the recess Jerome read from a statement of Evelyn's mother, Mrs. Holman, allegations regarding her daughters conduct with James A. Garland, the wealthy yacht owner. Evelyn calmly denied the statement and in return for the unnatural denunciation said her mother had never sold her to White; that her mother would not do such a thing.

When Jerome was questioning the witness this morning as to the whereabouts of the letters White had written her there was a remarkable interruption.

Thaw was growing more and more restless and finally in a voice audible to several people near him, he said in a strange whisper "White stole them from me."

The trial resumed at 2:06 with Evelyn on the stand.

Calumet and Hecla Mining Company directors met in Boston today and declared a $20 dividend payable March 22, on the 100,000 shares of stock. This is the same amount as paid three and six months ago, and compares with $15 paid a year ago.

Honduras and Nicaragua.

Managua, Nicaragua, February 20.—Another battle on the Honduras border between the troops of Honduras and Nicaragua is momentarily expected. While the Hondurans were defeated in yesterday's conflict which reopens the war between the two nations, they were not routed, and another attack is feared by the Nicaraguans.

So far Honduras has been the aggressor in the fighting. If it becomes necessary for the Nicaraguan forces to attack first in order to prevent their enemies from gaining an advantage the battle will be renewed by President Zelaya's forces.

News of another fight is anxiously awaited.

Trouble between Honduras and Nicaragua began last December when armed Honduran malcontents marched toward the Nicaraguan border. Honduras sent troops to pursue them and the revolutionists crossed into Nicaragua. A small force was sent by President Zelaya to guard the border and they were attacked in their own territory by Honduran soldiers who followed up their victory by pillaging a section of Nicaraguan territory.

President Zelaya of Nicaragua demanded indemnity and President Donilla offered to arbitrate. A court decided the frontier armies of both countries should disband, but neither seems to have done so. Diplomatic relations were broken off, Honduras claiming Nicaragua was aiding Honduras revolutionists.

This President Zelaya denied. The governments of the United States, Mexico, Guatemala, Costa Rica and Salvador interfered to prevent a war and after a few skirmishes assurances were given that there would be no more hostilities. A week ago when it appeared that the two countries were nearing the danger line, the same nations served notices on Nicaragua and Honduras to refrain from hostilities, but this warning has not been heeded.

Panama, Feb. 20.—Travelers arriving here from Central American ports predict serious trouble among the various republics. President Zelaya of Nicaragua, is credited with a desire to form a union of the Central American States. He is supported by enemies of Honduras, Salvador, and Guatemala.

His plan is said to be to replace the heads of nations unfavorable to his scheme with men who will support him. Honduras was selected as the starting point because it is supposed to be the weakest of the nations.

Recruiting in both Honduras and Nicaragua is proceeding rapidly, according to these reports.

A Complaint from China.

Berlin, Feb. 20.—Because of the alleged exclusion of Chinese from Japanese public schools in Japan, Tseng Ku-An-Chan, the Chinese Minister here, has been recalled to Perkin for the purpose of proceeding to Tokio as a special commissioner to study the question.

The excuse given by the Japanese for excluding the Chinese from the public schools is that their public schools are maintained at a great expense and are over-crowded with Japanese. It is further declared that by reason of ignorance of the Japanese language, the Chinese cannot keep up with the Japanese classes and have to be kept out. At the Japanese ministry here, the only statement made to your correspondent was: "We have hard work to find the finances to educate our own people."

At the Chinese Embassy the first secretary admitted that there was an educational question pending between China and Japan, but said he was not at liberty to make public the particulars at this time.

According to a newspaper published at Seoul, Korea, received here, the Korean authorities have protested to Japan against the exclusion of Korean pupils from the public schools of Japan.

English Girls for Southern Cotton Mills

Ipswich, Mass., Feb 20.—Stories told by Emily and Mary Ellen Smith, two young English girls, who recently came from Charlotte, N. C., to work in the local cotton mills, indicate a gigantic scheme to import through fraud and misrepresentation English mill girls to work in southern cotton factories under contract and in a condition of practical servitude.

Lancashire, the great manufacturing district of England, has been ranged by agents of southern cotton mills during the past six months contracting to send mill girls from 14 to 20 years of age to America free of charge, and guaranteeing them high wages, steady work and the best possible conditions of labor.

Over 500 young women from the big cotton manufacturing towns of Manchester, Bolton and Stockport, England, it is estimated, have already been landed in this country under contract to work in the southern cotton mills, and others, it is said, are now on the way here.

Investigating Cause of Death.

New York, Feb. 20.- Most damaging and sensational was the testimony of Miss Elizabeth Devine, a nurse, who attended Mrs. Ida Binge, the wealthy woman into whose death the coroner is today holding an inquest. Mrs. Leopold Wallau, daughter of the dead woman, held under $100,000 bail, and accused of poisoning her mother, to put her out of her misery from cancer was in court and sat impassively through the testimony which promises to edmesh her. According to the evidence of the nurse, it is suspected that Mrs Binge was poisoned by her daughter, Mrs. Wallau, but Dr. Samuel Gluck, the Wallau physician, testified that Mrs. Binge's death was due to natural causes. Dr. Schultz, the coroner's physician, who followed him and was performing the autopsy, testified that the old lady's death was due to mercurial poisoning.

Election in Russia.

St. Petersburg, Feb, 20.—Elections for the Douma will be completed today. Government circles are stupefied at the unexpected success of extremists in a great number of districts. Social democrats and the radical newspapers are exultant.

Workingmen and peasants are showing a remarkably firm temper in securing their rights. At a number of polling places, the government engaged priests to pray for the Czar while the ballots are being cast.

The reactionaries are in a desperate frame of mind, There is open talk of more Jewish progroms and massacres to force martial law and postpone the assembling of the new Douma.

Letter from Treasurer Walker

New Britain, Conn., Feb. 20.—Philip Corbin, president of the Savings Bank, of New Britain, today made public the letter received from Treasurer W. F. Walker, of the bank a week ago last Monday. In it Mr. Walker declared that he had been induced to come to New York on a notice from a representative of a bond house, with which they had dealings that some of the bank's investment bonds were possibly bogus, and he took home some of the bank bonds for examination. He said he left them with the artics and later found that the representative named was no longer connected with the bond house that he was evidently the victim of a deep laid plot which might cost him his life and a big loss to the bank. He left the letter to be mailed if he did not return from a visit Saturday, which he said he hope to get a settlement, by resorting to desperate measure.

It is now stated that two of the men who got $340,000, from Treasurer Walker, of New Britain, Conn., on a wire tapping scheme were Big Whitney and Charles Randolph, well known confidence man. It has been learned that on the first day they let Walker win $3,000. An important clew is said to have been discovered as to Walker's whereabouts.

Resignation Demanded.

Chicago, Feb. 20 —A demand for his resignation as general overseer of the Dowieite Church was served on Wilbur Glenn Voliva at Zion city today. Voliva's answer is expected before midnight. A refusal is expected. In that event the "Committee of Forty," which made the demand, will declare open war on Voliva. Voliva was appointed Dowie's regent during the latter's absence in Mexico, and usurped his leader's position. Dowie is heading the present revolt and has induced councils all over the world to refuse further support to the church until he is reinstated.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Feb. 20 —In the stock market this morning most stocks that showed changes opened lower. First prices for Pennsylvania, St. Paul Northwest, Southern Pacific and Great Northern preferred were unchanged. Smelting opened one-eighth higher and Anaconda lost a point in it. Union Pacific and Reading declined three-eighths. There was heavy selling in the market and lower price levels induced some long selling and helped the downward movement. At the end of the first hour most of the stock joined in a fair recovery and the tone was firm.

Thirteen men were imprisoned all last night in a caisson of the McAdoo tunnel in New York, the door of the caisson having become jammed. They were so weak from the long confinement in a pressure of three atmospheres, that they had to be removed on stretchers. On reaching the street they began to sweat blood and to double up with cramps. Two or three of the number may die.

Fifty-ninth Congress.

Washington, Feb. 20.

SENATE.

Absorbing interest marked the closing hours in the Senate of the battle which has been waged about Reed Smoot, the Mormon apostle, for the past few years.

The public and private galleries were filled to overflowing. Women largely predominated.

The chair had read a telegram from the Presbyterian Interaynodical Foreign Missionary convention at Omaha urging Smoot's expulsion. This was followed by a memorial from the Delaware Legislature, of similar import.

Mr. Dubois, who carried on a fight against Smoot for four years, got the floor and created a flurry when he charged that Mr. Hopkins in a former speech in defense of Smoot had held the Mormon Church superior to all other Christian organizations.

The Illinois Senator jumped to his feet, his eyes blazing. He tried to explain.

"I'll not yield, I'll not yield," shouted Mr. Dubois, advancing across the centre aisle, shaking his finger in emphasis.

"The Senator wouldn't yield to me and I'll not let him encroach upon my time now," he exclaimed.

"The Senator's charge against me is an absolute misrepresentation," shouted Mr. Hopkins.

He was declared to be out of order, but notwithstanding Mr. Dubois's protests against interruptions and the hammering of the gavel, the Illinois Senator got his denunciation in the record, with the added remark that the Senator must not misrepresent a colleague if he didn't want to be interrupted.

Mr. Dubois protested against the case being considered purely as a legal one. He said one might think from the way Smoot had been defended that the case was one of horse stealing. He referred to those who has defended the Utah senator as "sponsors," and "technical lawyers" and characterized their argument as "subterfuges by special pleaders for their client". He declared that Smoot in his personal defense yesterday hadn't dare go so far in defense of the Church as other senators, because he knew better.

He said Senators had deceived the Senate and the public "because they had not spoken from the testimony," and charged that Senator Knox in his recent defense of Smoot, had made "a sarcastic fling at the sanctity of the American home."

He declared that the President was the open friend of Smoot. "You have got the Mormon vote," he exclaimed, facing the republican side of the chamber, "but you have lost the moral support of the Christian women and men of the United States.

Mr. Beveridge, in following, contrasted the Smoot case with the Dreyfus case. He declared that there was no blacker wrong than to ruin the reputation of men or women and insisted that there was no public policy that could justify such damnation upon error.

Mr. Carmack announced that he would at the proper time offer an amendment to the pending resolution, calling for Smoot's explusion. He declared that the present method meant an evasion of the constitutional provision which requires a two thirds vote to remove a member of either House.

Mr. Hansbrough held that the action of the Mormon Church in sending Smoot to the Senate was an offense against good morals.

He thought the retention of Smoot would "be tantamount to putting the seal of official approval upon a conspiracy conceived in reasonable antagonist to our republican institutions."

Mr. Foraker held that no testimony exists that would justify the Senate in declaring Smoot's seat vacant.

He brought roar of laughter when he declared that Smoot showed a better character than any Senator could expect to attain, for he didn't smoke, chew, drink or swear. "The trouble is he seems to be too good," he added smilingly.

Mr. Bacon held that Smoot's high connection with the Mormon Church was a sufficient reason why his seat should be declared vacant.

HOUSE.

The House adopted a resolution authorising the President to extend an invitation to the International Congress on Hygene and Demography to hold its next meeting in Washington.

Another resolution was adopted, calling upon the Secretary of the Department of Commerce and Labor to make a report to Congress as soon as he completes his investigation into the Larchmont steamboat disaster off Rhode Island.

The scheme of Mr. Goebel, of Cincinnati, to grant a twenty per cent. increase to all postal employees except postmasters and assistant postmasters lost out in the House today. When Mr. Goebel presented it for insertion in the postal appropriation bill, Chairman Overstreet refused to allow it to go before the House, raising a point of order against it.

Mr. Goebel said that the postoffice committee had not gone far enough, that the increase should be all along, the low to the high. The meager pay received caused large numbers of resignations from the service, he urged.

Smarting under alleged unfair treatment by the postoffice department, Mr Murphy (repn, Missouri) has begun what seems to be a winning fight against authorizing the postmaster general to make any further increase in the postal service. He pressed his point of order to day against an increase in the number of superintendents of delivery and of miles of service from 17 to 23. When the chair indicated he was about to sustain the point, members of the postoffice committee asked for more time to present new arguments to the chair, despite the fact that they had had one postponement of the decision on the point already.

A kick was made by members who object to having their postoffice patronage taken away. An amendment was pressed by democrats and republicans requiring the Postoffice Department to notify Congressmen before discontinuing a fourth-class postoffice. A wail about mistrea ment rose from the members, who said the courtesy under which they had previously been notified by the Department of such contemplated action was no longer extended. The amendment was killed on a point of order.

Supposed Dead Man Returns Home.

Charles A. Robertson, a mining engineer, mourned as dead for seventeen years by his family, yesterday was restored to his wife and children in their home, in Roanoke. Robertson left his family at Shenanhoah, Va., in 1890, to go to Georgia on business. He fell ill and went to an Atlanta Hospital. His wife was advised that he was dead and buried. The family donned black and moved to Roanoke. Two weeks ago Robertson's daughter, Miss Gladys Robertson, a stenographer in the office of the president of the Tidewater Railroad at Norfolk, took a dictation addressed to Charles A. Robertson, mining engineer, Tampa, Fla. Miss Robertson fainted. An investigation was started, and yesterday Robertson arrived in Roanoke. His wife and daughters swooned when he entered the house. Then there was rejoicing. The family went to Roanoke after learning Robertson was dead, and he says he could not locate them.

Endorsed by the Country.

"The most popular remedy in Otsego county, and the best friend of my family," writes Wm. M. Dietz, editor and publisher of the Otsego Journal, Gilbertsville, N. Y., "is Dr. King's New Discovery. It has proved to be an infallible cure for coughs and colds, making short work of the worst of them. We always keep a bottle in the house. I believe it to be the most valuable prescription known for Lung and Throat diseases." Guaranteed to never disappoint the taker, by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Argo Red Salmon sells everywhere at 15 cents per can. Don't judge the quality by the price. It is cleaned and packed entirely by machine, and not touched by the human hand.

Wedded in Lion's Den.

To advertise the Zoo and draw a crowd of people, Charles Carleton and Katharine Carrie were married by a local preacher, Rev. Frank R. Hurtt, in a cage with five lions in Baltimore, Monday night. The couple is said to have received $250 and the preacher $50, for going through the ceremony. Carleton is said to be an animal trainer, and the bride was said, by a go-between, also to be an animal trainer. Special admission rates were paid by an immense crowd to witness the show. The preacher, bride, and groom entered first, followed by Col. P. J. Mundy and all the trainers, and then the lions came in and perched themselves on a double-sized ladder as spectators. They growled some, and when they didn't look mad enough one of the trainers administered a tap of the whip on the savage nose.

It's a pleasure to tell our readers about a Cough Cure like Dr. Shoop's. For years Dr. Shoop has fought against the use of Opium, Chloroform, or other unsafe ingredients commonly found in Cough remedies. Dr. Shoop, it seems, has welcomed the Pure Food and Drug Law recently enacted, for he has worked along similar lines many years. For nearly 20 years Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure contains have had a warning printed on them against Opium and narcotic poisons. He has thus made it possible for mothers to protect their children by simply insisting on having Dr. Shoop's Cough Cure. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

Piles of people have Piles. Why suffer from piles when you can use DeWitt's Carbolized Witch Hazel Salve and get relief. Nothing else so good. Beware of imitations. See that the name is stamped on each box. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co., 401 King street.

Croup can positively be stopped in 20 minutes. No vomiting—nothing to sicken or distress your child. A sweet, pleasant, and safe Syrup, called Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure, does the work and does it quickly. Dr. Shoop's Croup Cure for Croup alone, remember. It does not claim to cure a dozen ailments. It's for Croup, that's all. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists.

The Limit of Life.

The most eminent medical scientists are unanimous in the conclusion that the generally accepted limitation of human life is many years below the attainment possible with the advanced knowledge of which the race is now possessed. The critical period that determines its duration, seems to be between 50 and 60; the proper care of the body during this decade cannot be too strongly urged; carelessness then being fatal to longevity. Nature's best helper after 50 is Electric Bitters, the scientific tonic medicine that revitalizes every organ of the body. Guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater, & Sons, druggists.
